Teen Counselors

We are accepting applications for counselors until Sunday, May 18. Interested youth and college-age young adults are encouraged to apply for this fun leadership and faith development opportunity. Community service hours or $400 honorarium is available. Applications are available from the Religious Education staff.

Counselors-in-Training

Youth may also apply to attend Camp as Counselor-in-Training. Community service hours or scouting credit can be arranged. Contact RE Coordinator for application materials.

Family Participation

Each camp family is expected to make a contribution of time or materials. Contact the Camp Director to discuss your ideas. Families will be expected to provide lunch for their child(ren) each day. Snacks will be provided.

Scholarship Assistance

Partial financial aid is available. Contact Miranda Massa or Rev. Roger Jones by May 4.

Counselors & CITs:

UUSS youth to be selected

Director, Amanda Tenney, is a devoted mother of two young UU children and has had a background in UU beginning from a very young age. She serves on the RE Committee as the Champion to our Nursery. She works as a volunteer at both her children's schools. Amanda has received training in the guidance of young children and is currently continuing her education in child development at CSUS. She enjoys what she does and finds pleasure in watching the minds of children unfold.
