- Talk the Walk: Speaking Justice in the Language of Our Faith
Thursday, June 25; 10:45 – 12:00 p.m.
UU College of Social Justice
Historical movements for justice have often been inspired and sustained by religious faith and practice. Ours is an activist faith, yet when we take action in the public sphere our religion is often invisible. How might we bring our own justice commitments into deeper conversation with our spiritual lives, and learn to speak our convictions in the language of our faith?

Rev. Kathleen McTigue, Rev. Lindi Ramsden

- GA Talks: Multigenerational Worship and Community Ministry

Thursday, June 25; 1:15 – 2:30 p.m.

Young Adults @ GA

Come and participate in GA Talks! GA Talks, TED-style presentation designed to entertain, educate and inform, provide an opportunity to listen to stories and wisdom from fellow Unitarian Universalists. Today's speakers are Rev. Christina Leone Tracy and Lincoln Statler. Hosted by Kenny Wiley and the Young Adults @GA community. Rev. Christina Leone Tracy, Lincoln W. Statler, Kenny Wiley

- Choosing, Telling, and Bringing Stories to Life in Worship

Thursday, June 25; 3:00 – 4:15 p.m.

Stories are a powerful tool in worship—especially multigenerational worship. Laden with images, metaphors, playfulness, and truth, story provides a common language and shared experience across different generations and theologies. More than just teaching story-telling skills, our workshop will focus specifically on how to integrate meaningful stories into worship.

Rev. Erika Hewitt, Becky Brooks

- Commit2Respond: Growing Young Adult Leadership for Climate Justice

Thursday, June 25; 4:45 – 6:00 p.m.

UU Young Adults for Climate Justice

Join visioning conversations about how to empower or embody young adult leadership in climate justice organizing in our faith communities and at large. Leaders of the UU Young Adults for Climate Justice network, who are putting faith into action to address the intersecting social and environmental struggles of our time, will facilitate the conversation. All ages welcome!
