- THEATER ONE PRESENTS -

The Reconciliation of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson.

A Staged Reading in Two Acts July 5, 2015 at 2:00pm in Fahs Room

An Excerpt From The Script....

JEFFERSON

"Monticello, June 27, 1813: Men have differed in opinions and have been divided into parties by these opinions from the first origin of society and in all governments where they have been permitted freely to think and to speak. The same political parties which now agitate the United States have existed through all time....They denote temper and constitution of mind of different individuals. To come to our own country, and to times when you and I first became acquainted, we well remember the violent parties which agitated the old congress and their bitter contests, and there you and I were together...They cherished the monarchy of England, and we the rights of our countrymen." (Capon, pp 335-338)
