About the Art Exhibit Committee

The Unitarian Universalist Society of Sacramento (UUSS) Art Exhibit Committee (AEC) was established in 2006 to enhance the aesthetic experience within the UUSS auditorium and to acknowledge the importance of creativity in our lives. The committee first selected UUSS members to exhibit their art, and later extended the invitation to UUSS family members, friends, and to the larger community of artists in the Sacramento area.

Since 2006, there have been 35 exhibits, some including two or more artists. An evening reception for the artist or artists is provided by the committee at which the artist(s) give a talk about their artwork, followed by a lively question and answer session. It is informative and a delight to hear the artist talk about the inspiration for their works of art and how they are created. UUSS receives a percentage of the sale price from the artist when an artwork is sold.

The art committee looks forward to presenting exhibits in the new UUSS main hall. There are usually four exhibits a year. If anyone is interested in being on the committee or applying to have an exhibit, please contact Patricia Pratt at 482-3018 or quiltsrpat@aol.com.
