

Celebration of Life Barbara Randall Jodry

Please consider honoring Barbara with a contribution to her beloved organizations:

Solar Cookers International, 2400 22nd St., Ste. #210
Sacramento, CA 95818 solarcookers.org

Unitarian Universalist Society of Sacramento
2425 Sierra Blvd., Sacramento CA 95825
916-483-9283 www.uuss.org

University of Connecticut Alumni Association
Heritage Fund, Office of Alumni Relations, 2384 Alumni Drive, #3053
Storrs, CT 06269 foundation.uconn.edu

1928 - 2021

Unitarian Universalist Society of Sacramento

Program

Music for Gathering composed and performed by Lucas Kirby
“For Good” composed by Stephen Schwartz
“This Land is Your Land” composed by Woody Guthrie

Music to depart the sanctuary, among Barbara’s favorites:

“White Cliffs of Dover,” by Kent and Burton, performed by Vera Lynn
“Well May the World Go” composed by Woody Guthrie, performed by Pete Seeger
“You Meet the Nicest People in Your Dreams” by the High Sierra Jazz Band
“What a Wonderful World” composed by Bob Thiele & George David Weiss, performed by Placido Domingo & Placido Domingo, Jr.
“New Orleans Stomp” by the High Sierra Jazz Band

Music for Gathering
Opening Words -- Rev. Roger Jones
Lighting of the Chalice -- Rich Jodry Family
Eulogy -- Rev. Roger Jones
Song: “For Good” -- Eli and Jennifer Justman Family
Baha’i Prayer -- Rachel Kiene
Words from Family --
Alfred Randall, Elizabeth Jodry, Melinda Jodry, Carol Coan, Kathryn Justman
Singalong -- Morning Has Broken (Hymn #38)
Your Appreciation of Barbara: Caitlyn Hughes -Solar Cookers International; a statement from Pat Biasotti; family and friends who wish to speak
Singalong -- This Land is Your Land
Minister’s Prayer
Extinguishing of the Chalice -- Eli and Toby Justman
Benediction -- Rev. Roger Jones
Music to depart the sanctuary
Social time and refreshments in the Welcome Hall and on the patio

Thank you, Dirk Tuell, for managing the technical presentation for this service. Your work is deeply appreciated.