In Loving Memory

August 19, 1943—January 1, 2026

Don't cry for me Argentina
I've been this way before.
(As an imaginary test run at the Cleveland Gestalt Institute)

Where I've learned to Die Bold.
(Remember the Akron Company, Diebold)

So this body's off on an R & R.
(During the Vietnam War, that was a "Rest and Recreation")

Now, it's more of a Rest and Re-Creation.

And I'll be back in a billion years
Or so,

After some future Super Nova,
I'll see you

Or maybe parts of us will be together again.
